

Job: Oregon State University

The College of Business at Oregon State University invites applicants for an anticipated full time (1.0 FTE), nine-month tenure-track position in Marketing at the rank of Assistant Professor to begin September 2013.

Primary teaching responsibilities involve delivering undergraduate and graduate courses in Marketing. We have teaching needs in areas including marketing management, marketing strategy/policy, retail management, and promotion/IMC including social media. The successful candidate will join an active research faculty with interests in CCT and experiential consumption. Scholarly activities are expected to result in peer-reviewed publications in respected journals. Service responsibilities include engaging with the Austin Entrepreneurship Program.

Required qualifications include an appropriate earned doctorate from an AACSB International accredited university or equivalent with an emphasis in marketing and evidence of or potential and motivation for scholarly research and publication in top marketing journals. Preferred qualifications include (1) teaching experience at the university level, (2) relevant professional non-academic work experience and ability to develop strong linkages with the business community, (3) the demonstrated ability to collaborate in scholarly pursuits with colleagues located both locally and remotely, and (4) demonstrable commitment to promoting and enhancing diversity.

Applications must be submitted using the university's on-line application process located at <http://oregonstate.edu/jobs>, search for Posting No. 0009278 or use this Quick Link: <https://jobs.oregonstate.edu/applicants/Central?quickFind=60636>. For full consideration, applications should be submitted by 8/22/2012. Candidates should a (1) letter of interest that clearly indicates the applicant's interest in the marketing position, (2) a vita, (3) the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of three references, (4) summary information on courses taught and student evaluations, and (5) a brief statement that describes research interests and teaching philosophy. OSU is an AA/EOE.