Help Recruit the Next Class of Business Beavers

We need motivated student leaders LIKE YOU that will help us make personal connections with the incoming class of College of Business students and sell them on why the our college is the best choice. Help our incoming students feel wanted and connected by sharing your experience as a current student.

- The recruitment team will provide you with a “caseload” of admitted students to contact.
- We will arm you with email templates, phone call scripts, and suggestions for communicating with these newly admitted students.

- All current students will receive a College of Business ambassador swag kit for participating and a special “thank you” for completing the task.

Student volunteers will complete a two-hour training with initial messaging and food provided on Fri., March 1 | 1 - 3 pm | Austin 440, and spend an estimated four to five hours TOTAL between March 1 - May 1 on three more follow-up contact messages to each student in your caseload.

Career Fair Tips

2. Do your research - Look at the list of attending companies, and research the openings they have available.
3. Network, don't interview - Introduce yourself, talk about your background, and get their contact info; follow-up with an email or call.
4. Be selective - Do not feel like you need to be a fit with every company attending.
5. Stand out - Give the company representatives specific things that help set you apart.
